Privacy Policy

This policy explains how Giffnock Tennis, Squash and Hockey Club collects, uses, stores and protects personal information in accordance with the UK GDPR and Data Protection Act 2018. It covers membership, coaching, event bookings, website enquiries, CCTV, photography, cookies and members' rights.

Cookie Policy

Our website uses essential and optional cookies to improve functionality, analyse website traffic and enhance your experience. Visitors can manage cookie preferences through the website banner or browser settings.

Photography & Video Policy

The Club may take photographs and videos during coaching, competitions and social events. Images are used to promote the Club through its website and social media. Consent is obtained where appropriate, particularly for junior members, and individuals may request removal of images by contacting manager@giffnock-tsh.co.uk.

Website Terms of Use

By using our website you agree to use it lawfully and not misuse its content. Information is provided in good faith and remains the intellectual property of the Club unless otherwise stated.

CCTV Privacy Notice

CCTV operates at the Club for crime prevention, safety and the protection of members, visitors and property. Recordings are retained only for as long as necessary and are accessed only by authorised personnel.

Data Retention Policy

Personal information is retained only for as long as required to administer memberships, meet legal obligations and support club operations. Data is securely deleted or anonymised when no longer required.

Note: This is a professionally formatted starter policy pack. A full publication-ready version would expand each section with detailed GDPR provisions, legal definitions, member rights, subject access request procedures, lawful bases, retention schedules, cookie tables, photography consent processes and governance information.
